

Where is the best place to dispose of fiber optic patch cords

Overview

Many big-box stores, like Best Buy, have designated drop-off locations for e-waste, where you can safely dispose of old cables, chargers, and other electronics. Local recycling centers are also great options and often accept a variety of wire types. Our goal in Manchester is to make WEEE waste disposal and recycling easy and accessible for businesses and residents, ensuring a greener and cleaner. EMERGE Recycling is a registered treatment facility for waste electrical and electronic equipment (WEEE) We can recycle: We also accept some hazardous items such as batteries, cathode-ray tubes (CRTs) and thin-film transistors (TFTs) for an added charge. I consent to Emerge Recycling collecting my. To recycle, find a bag that you can use to store old cables and leads until you can go to the recycling centre – or until collection day, if you have one. Find your local recycling point.
